

A Living Investment

Murphy Centre
Since 1986

Program Goals

1

To create a barrier free adult education program and deliver free lessons to learners regardless of their access to technology or their geographical location.

2

To utilize online learning to create opportunities for adults living in rural communities in Newfoundland to enhance their literacy, numeracy, and digital literacy skills.

Contact us to get started!

juliancruz@murphycentre.ca

730 - 0443

<https://www.murphycentre.ca/academic-services/remote-literacy-program/>

SCAN ME

Remote Literacy Program

FREE online sessions to grow your personal or professional skills.

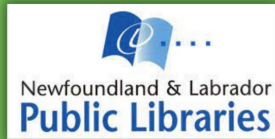

Who we are

The Murphy Centre is a registered, non-profit charitable organization. Our participants come from diverse backgrounds and life experiences.

The Murphy Centre provides effective, person-centred adult education and career and personal development services.

The Remote Literacy Program is in partnership with:

With funding from:

Program Details

The Remote Literacy program aims to deliver online sessions delivered online. All sessions are free and focus on skills that help you grow personally or professionally.

What services are available?

Group Lessons

Visit our website or Facebook page for our monthly schedule.

Areas of Focus

DIGITAL LITERACY

- Creating and Writing Emails.
- Creating Secure Accounts and Passwords.
- Identifying Spam and Scam Emails.
- Learn Useful Everyday Apps.

... and more!

FINANCIAL LITERACY

- Creating a Budget.
- Shopping Smart.
- Safely Shopping Online.

... and more!

One-on-one Lessons

Contact us to schedule one-on-one sessions on any topic related to literacy.

EMPLOYABILITY SKILLS

- Stress Management.
- Adaptability.
- Growth Mindset and Motivation.
- Communication.

... and more!

